

Call for Papers

Canadian Public Economic Group, CPEG2021/22
Concordia University
Montreal
4-5th, November 2022

The Canadian Public Economic Group (CPEG) invites you to submit a paper for its annual meeting, which will take place in person at Concordia University on 4-5th, November 2022. The annual conference was to take place in Fall 2021, but due to the pandemic is now further postponed to the Fall of 2022.

Accepted papers will be presented in plenary sessions, with high quality discussants. We welcome papers in all areas of theoretical and empirical public economics, including public finance, political economy, and policy-oriented microeconomics. A select number of graduate students will be included on the program.

To be considered for this year's program, please submit your paper to the scientific committee. Send an extended abstract and, if available, a draft of the paper to cpeg2021Montreal@gmail.com by Friday, 15th April, 2022. If you would like to participate as a discussant, please email the scientific committee at cpeg2021Montreal@gmail.com. A decision on the acceptance of papers will be made by the scientific committee with authors being notified by 15th May, 2022.

Invited speakers:

Yan CHEN (Michigan) and Navin KARTIK (Columbia)

Scientific committee:

Till GROSS (Carleton), Elisabeth GUGL (Victoria), Adam LAVECCHIA (McMaster), Ming LI (Concordia, co-organizer and chair), Sitian LIU (Queen's), Arthur SILVE (Laval), and Huan XIE (Concordia, co-organizer)

Feel free to circulate this Call for Papers to colleagues, graduate students, and other interested parties.
